

Tiny Stitches January 2010 Newsletter

Happy New Year!

Emily will be handling the Treasurers' duties after today.

Checks have not been received from Hart EMC or Speedway. Someone will pick them up this month.

We can only request $10,000 from Jackson EMC in order to keep our status as a public non-profit.

Distribution for this month is 55 layettes, 14 fetal demise, and 1 burial.

We need white, lacy afghans, 24"X24", for burials. They can be made of 3ply yarn with larger needles. They are decorative and not for warmth.

The date for the Sewing and Quilting Expo has changed. It will be on March 11-13. Set up will be on Wednesday. Check with Leon to sign up to volunteer at our booth.

Georgia will check to see how many pin cushions were left from last year and then decide how many we need to have for the Expo.

Our Website is being upgraded. We will pay for the upgrade. The hosting and maintenance of the website are donated services.

Emily will be checking to see who has the sewing machines and sergers that belong to Tiny Stitches to verify who has them and that they are being used for Tiny Stitches work. If you have a machine, please respond to her request.

The Board has reaffirmed our policy concerning buying materials. Unless you are specifically authorized to buy materials, you must get permission before you buy anything totaling over $100.00 if you want to be reimbursed. If you do not get permission, we will consider the purchase a donation and give you a tax receipt. We appreciate your efforts, but we have to maintain control of our budget.

Because of Christmas , we are low on a number of items this month.

We need:

Receiving blankets - the new flannel is in

Afghans

Sleepsacks

Sweaters

Boy sleepers, gowns, and lapfront shirts

Girl sleepers and gowns

Large Tote bags, especially girl fabrics

Burial Afghans - see above
