

Message from our Blessed Mother 8/15/2010
Feast of the Assumption Celebration:

My beloved children,
Thank you for responding to my call. It pleases me greatly that you join your prayers as a family. My children, I am sending you the grace today to persevere in what God has called you to do. Do not turn to the right or to the left, for this path is lined with the graces you need to fulfill God's will.

Take what I have given you already—my motherly instructions are to lead you and guide you, to bring you peace and joy of the Lord.

My beloveds, be ever so ready with your weapon of the rosary, for it will defeat the obstacles that keep you from God.

Now, my children, I wish that you would also persevere in going to Holy Communion, the Blessed Sacrament of reconciliation. My children, all of these graces lead you, guide you, strengthen you to be that tower of love that God wants you to be. I need you to be a reflection of the mirror of my son, Jesus. I want that you be an oasis of peace.

Peace, peace, peace of Jesus be with you and thank you, thank you, for being here today with me. Thank you for the sacrifice to seek out my son in me.
