

Gifted to Serve Fitted for Ministry

Discover Your Place of Service By Discovering Your:

Spiritual Gifts
Experiences
Relational Style
Vocational Skills
Enthusiasm

A tool to help you identify, discover and apply your unique role in fulfilling God's purpose for your life!

We live to be Disciples of Christ who exalt God, prepare people, and share Christ.

Discover Your S.E.R.V.E.

God has prepared all of us to S.E.R.V.E. One way to see how God has prepared you is to discover your Spiritual Gifts, Experiences, Relational Style, Vocational Skills, and Enthusiasm. This is accomplished by completing this workbook and a personal interview with a S.E.R.V.E. coordinator to analyze your results. When a tennis player enhances his or her serve, then they can become a better tennis player. It is the same way with a servant leader, the more we understand about our S.E.R.V.E. the better we will be able to S.E.R.V.E. God.

This process will help you find your strengths in the stuff you do at home, work, and at First Baptist Church. You may even learn of some unexpected ideas about areas in which you would enjoy serving in the community or at the church. Remember that this is designed to encourage you as you seek ways in which God has prepared you for service. Completion of this process does not require your participation in any area or specific ministry at First Baptist.

When you have completed the workbook exercises, please call the church office to schedule an interview. If you have any questions, please call Darrell Williams at the church office (252.726.4784)

Spiritual Gifts – those gifts given by the Holy Spirit to empower us for service.

Experiences – those events in our life that molds you into a servant leader.

Relational Style – this is our personality that makes us unique and will give us a leadership style.

Vocational Skills – these are the abilities that we have acquired through our training and experiences.

Enthusiasm – the passion God has placed in your heart for a certain ministry to others.

Everyone is free to discover and develop their spiritual gifts in a God-called ministry.

Spiritual Gifts

What is a spiritual gift?

A spiritual gift is a special ability given by the Holy Spirit. (1 Corinthians 12:7)

What is the purpose of Spiritual Gifts?

God gifts believers for the purpose of making their unique contribution to the church. Therefore, they are to be used to minister to others and to build up the body of the church. (1 Peter 4:10 & Ephesians 4:11-14)

Spiritual Gift Assessment

Taking the Spiritual Gift Assessment is not a fool proof way of knowing your spiritual gifts. Sometimes the best way to know is to begin serving somewhere and allow the Holy Spirit to speak to you. However, identifying your spiritual gifts will give you an idea of how God may have gifted you to serve.

As you answer the questions remember this is not a test. There are no right or wrong answers. Let your responses reflect how you feel at the present time. Usually your immediate response is best. Do not take too much time on any one question, but be sure to answer all the questions.

Use the enclosed answer sheet to record your answer. After completion return the answer sheet to Darrell Williams for tabulation. You may choose to go online at www.teamministry.com and complete the analysis and print out a copy for your records.

Read each statement, decide how it pertains to you, and mark the appropriate circle on the answer sheet.

If the statement fits you 70% - 100% of the time, darken circle #1 Almost Always.
If the statement fits you 40% - 70% of the time, darken circle #2 Occasionally.
If the statement fits you less than 40% of the time, darken circle #3 Not Very Often.

1. I have a consuming passion (strong desire, great concern) to reach non-Christians.
2. I put great importance on repentance (sorrow, regret, resulting in turning from sin).
3. I believe I am very discerning of other people's motives.
4. When I speak, I desire to stir other people's consciences (make them think).
5. I have an unusually strong desire to study the Bible.
6. I put great importance on education.
7. When I do something, I like to see "tangible" results for my efforts, such as a finished project or measurable results.

If the statement fits you 70% - 100% of the time, darken circle #1 Almost Always.
If the statement fits you 40% - 70% of the time, darken circle #2 Occasionally.

 If the statement fits you less than 40% of the time, darken circle #3 Not Very Often

86. I am quick to recognize and respond when other people need help.
87. I want to know my financial gift is being used properly. I believe in accountability.
88. I tend to judge others' success by the amount of their material assets.
89. I want to be a winner; I cannot bear defeat.
90. I am capable of making quick decisions and sticking to them.
91. When I witness to a non-Christian, I always press for a decision.
92. Others think I am more interested in the number of people led to the Lord than in people themselves.
93. You must "prove" me wrong before I will go along with you.
94. Studying is too time-consuming; I rely on others to do my background work for me.
95. I find other teachers' material hard to present; I prefer to develop my own.
96. I put great emphasis on word pronunciation.
97. Other people think I am not evangelistic because of my emphasis on personal growth.
98. I am accused of not using enough Scripture when teaching.
99. I enjoy doing a wide variety of activities rather than being confined to only one.
100. I perceive myself as a shepherd (guiding and ministering to those under my care).
101. I am an emotional person; I tend to show my feelings and cry easily.
102. I identify emotionally and mentally with others.
103. Some people think I neglect spiritual needs because of my focus on physical and practical needs.
104. I enjoy mechanical jobs in the church.
105. I may measure (judge) other peoples' spirituality by the amount of their giving.
106. Others think I am trying to control (manipulate) them with my money.
107. When there is no leadership in a group, I will assume it.
108. I have the ability to organize and harmonize the people with whom I work.

3. _____

Experiences

“And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love Him, who have been called according to His purpose.” Romans 8:28

“Now, I (Paul) want you to know, brothers, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the Gospel.” Philippians 1:12

Take some time reflecting on your past and how you have been changed by what those experiences have been. Your past can be the most significant factor in determining how God wants you to serve. Sometimes certain events happen in our lives that create a greater sensitivity to the needs of others. For example, the mother of a child with disabilities may feel called to help others who have children with special needs.

Begin by doing a time line of the events of your life. Begin with your birth and all the events in your life that has helped shape you into who you are today.

List your positive and meaningful experiences. How have these added to your growth?

List any painful experiences. What lessons have you learned from these trials?

List your spiritual experiences.

How you came to know Christ.

Meaningful decisions you have made

Special times with God

Have you had any experiences in life that give you a passion to support others in a specific way? If so what kind of ministry would that be?

Relational Style

Every person is uniquely made by God and therefore we all have a different style or personality. Each style has its strengths and weaknesses and God can use any style to serve His purposes. To know your personality and how you relate to others is important in matching you to the right ministry.

Remember: The right style is your style surrendered to God.

How are you around other people? Reserved or Outgoing

Outgoing: Stereotypical Descriptions

Enthusiasm

“Delight yourself in the Lord and He will give you the desires of your heart.” Psalm 37:4

Your enthusiasm or passion in ministry consists of those areas that motivate or pull you toward involvement. These are not the “shoulds”, rather they are the areas you would choose if you were not limited by anything and knew you could not fail.

The Bible uses the term “heart” to represent the center of your motivation, desires, and inclinations. The heart determines:

Why you SAY the things you do.

“The mouth speaks what the heart is full of” Matt. 12:34

Why you FEEL the way you do.

The Word of God...examines the thoughts and motives of the heart.” Hebrews 4:12

Why you ACT the way you do.

“Guard your heart, for it is the wellspring of life.” Proverbs 4:23

The Bible makes it very clear that your heart was designed by God, but you make the choice to use it for good or evil, for selfish purposes or for service.

You may have “.....selfish ambition in your heart...” James 3:14

or

You may “...Serve the Lord with all your heart.” 1 Samuel 12:20

The following questions can help you identify and state your enthusiasm/passion/heart for ministry. Assume that money, time, and abilities are not an issue. Follow your dream...

1. I prefer to work with:
Things People Information Other_____

2. I am attracted to and have the greatest concern for:
Infants Children Students/Teens Young Adults Adults

Senior Adults Singles Couples Other_____

3. Things I do well and enjoy are:

4. What I love doing is:

5. People compliment me when...

6. The greatest need I could address at First Baptist is:

The following list will help your thinking:

I love to...

Design/develop: love to make something out of nothing or get something from scratch

Pioneer: love to test and try out new concepts; be unafraid to risk failure

Organize: love to bring order out of chaos or keep something going once it is started

Serve/help: enjoy assisting others in their responsibility; help them succeed

Improve: like making things better; improving what has already been started or developed

Lead/be in charge: love to lead the way, oversee and supervise; enjoy determining how things will be done

Operate/maintain: love to efficiently maintain something that is already organized

Acquire/Possess: love to shop, collect, or obtain things, looking for the highest quality for the best price

Excel: love to be the best and make the team the best; enjoy setting and attaining the highest standard

Influence: like to convert people to your way of thinking; enjoy shaping the attitudes and behavior of others

Perform: like being on stage and receive the attention of others; enjoy being in the limelight

Repair: love to fix what is broken or change what is out of date

Persevere: love to see things to completion; enjoy persisting at something until it is finished

Prevail: love to fight for what is right and oppose what is wrong; enjoy overcoming injustice.

The Next Step

The next step in the process is to meet with a S.E.R.V.E. coordinator in order to discuss what your assessments may have revealed and how you can be used to better serve God at First Baptist Church. This is just a beginning of a life long journey to discover how God has prepared you to S.E.R.V.E. Him.
