DINNER AND RECEPTION INTERACTIVE EVENTS

(Please check which interactive events you want at your reception)

Sexy Legs or He's the Greatest Dancer Contest

- Male guests will be pre-selected and invited up on the dance floor, where they THINK they will be judges for a contest. However, they will then learn they are the actual contestants and they will be required to roll up their pant leg and let loose while trying to compete for audience applause.

Anniversary Dance

- The DJ will invite all the married couples on the dance floor and will play a slow song and every 30 seconds during the song the DJ will ask those who have been married for 5 years to step aside then 30 second later everyone that has been married for 10 years and so on until there is only one married couple on the dance floor who have been married the longest. The DJ will ask them how long they have been married and their names along with asking them if they have any advice for the new married couple.

Raise the Shoe

- The Bride/Groom will take off their shoes and exchange 1 shoe with each other. They will each sit on a chair with their backs facing each other. They will be asked a series of questions (10-15). If the correct answer is in regards to the Groom, the Groom's shoe will be raised; if the correct answer is in regards to the Bride, the Bride's shoe will be raised. This is a humorous game since the Bride and Groom cannot see each other's answers, only their guests. Sample question: Who will be the first person in the marriage to say "Not tonight dear?"

Honeymoon Dance (Dollar Dance)

- Guests will give money to the Bride or Groom to have an opportunity to dance with the Bride or Groom. Considered extra spending money for the Honeymoon.

Cha Cha Slide / Cupid Shuffle / Electric Slide / Chicken Dance / Train / Conga Line

The DJ is able to show your guests step by step how to do these dances. These are great fillers during the open dancing portion of the Reception.

Keys

For the bride to know and the groom to find out. Very Funny. Ask us how this is played.

Soul Train Line

- The DJ will instruct your guests to form two lines on the dance floor. One person at the front of each side would dance together through the center of the two lines and then separate into their lines again. This process would repeat for each person throughout the entire song.

Dinner Quest (Dinner)

- Buffet Dinner Game – DJ will dismiss tables by calling out random items for someone to bring to him from each table. The person from the table that brings the item to the DJ first will have their entire table allowed through the buffet line.

Table Tunes (Dinner)

- Buffet Dinner Game – Each table will have a place card at the center of the table indicating the name of a song pre-selected by the Bride and Groom. The DJ will play those songs randomly during dinner. When a table's song is played, the table is dismissed to go through the Buffet Line.
