

Train your staff church consultants for minimal cost and travel!

The Society for Church Consulting offers denominational groups like yours an opportunity to conduct our four-level consultant training program in the comfort and convenience of your own facility. Your organization will receive:

- 3-day training program taught by experienced consultants and authors
- Discounted tuition for your team
- Updated content and research from multiple sources

Our well-known instructors have varied denominational backgrounds, and will be sensitive to your needs. Recent organizations we've worked with include the Southern Baptist Conservatives of Virginia, Buncombe Baptist Association, and the Illinois Baptist State Association.

What we request of our organizational hosts:

- Classroom seating for up to 50 people, with a podium, screen, projector and microphone
- Wireless internet access and extension cords for participants
- Food/beverage in an adjacent or nearby room – provide continental breakfast, light lunch, and break refreshments
- Willingness to include consulting students outside your organization
